Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Why is the word gold mentioned more in the bible than the word pray? What secrets can we learn when it comes to building lasting institutions? These and other critical questions are raised and addressed in this enlightening book on gold in the bible. You will never look at gold with the same perspective again after reading this book. Find out the connection of gold and your personal success. Why do some people collect it and others have no understanding of its value? Once you get a clear understanding on how God used it, you may never be the same. With hundreds of churches closing every year because of the lack of finances, and the majority of Americas in debt. The Gold Choice will touch upon some foundational truths that can lead to financial freedom.
