Excerpt from A Sketch of the Life and Character of Albert Arnold Bennett, D.D Of his early life little need be said. His mother, who was of Huguenot descent, died when he was of Huguenot descent, died when he was but seven years old, yet he cherished tenderest memories of her. The bed-time prayer she taught him closed with send the gospel to the heathen. His father, a deacon in the Fifth Baptist Church of Philadelphia, was superintendent of the Sunday School, respected by all who knew him, and dearly loved by his many children. Albert, the fifth, was a very delicate baby and child, and neither mother nor father expected him to live to grow up. In his memories of a happy childhood Sunday was a red letter day. Since, of course, there must be no noisy play, the children went out into the small city yard only once at a time. Then it was that the garden itself was observed and enjoyed, and the child learned to know and love every flower it contained. Ordinary...
