There are many Buildings on the West Hill. The cliff on the West Hill gradually. decreases in height, till it descends to the shore in a steep slope, on which the new buildings have extended themselves. Westward of these is the Parish of St. Andrew, in which the Gas Works of Parishes: the Town stand, but in the whole of which there are only three inhabited Houses; St. Andrew, and beyond it, the Parish of the Holy Trinity, which is chiefly low meadow land. In that part of the last named Parish which adjoins the Sea, is a considerable number of small Dwellings and Workshops: these are built on derelict land, and were seised, about three years ago, into the hands...
