Rape is a serious crime and it takes courage to reach out and fight for the victims. We must understand they don't need our sympathy, what they need is our commitment to stand by them. The initiative and courage to do the same as shown by the authors is inspirational. A book that shakes you out of your slumber and pushes you to be the change I would recommend the book as a must read for a safer future. Kabir Sadanand - Actor, Director - FUGLY (Mumbai) About the Book: Love. Lust. Desire. Rape. Anger. Education. Profession. Maladies of life? Title is Untitled helps us into a sneak peek at a unique combination of facts and fiction. Three authors join their heads to weave a book that would hold fact high along with fiction. You knew the statistics, but you didn't know the paths that lead to the situations we are facing these days. Coupled with adequate dose of humour, Title is Untitled will enhance, enrich and enlighten your knowledge. Come, join hands with us in spreading knowledge and awareness about issues that are plaguing our society now. Testimonials Why rape happen in India ; whose fault is it? ; are women responsible for this no of ours not. It's not the victims fault. This book increases your curiosity and gives you goose bumps. I read this book and I got really inspired. In today's generation everyone is having a busy life and everyone is becoming selfish and in that selfish world no one really cares about people and they blame the victims without actually knowing the whole thing. This issue raised by Authors...
